

MANY WHO SERVED COUNTRY IN WAR ABIDE IN OUR CEMETERIES

List Compiled By
Veteran's Commission
At County Seat

(February, 1961)

278 men who served their country in eight wars are peacefully resting beneath the friendly green sod of five cemeteries in the southern part of the county. Listed in the wars are soldiers of the War of 1812, Mexican War, Blackhawk War, Civil War, (which has by far the largest number of war dead), Spanish-American War, World Wars Nos. I and II, and the Korean War.

The cemeteries are: Mount Pulaski, 186; Two-Mile Grove, 8; Lake Bank (Latham), 17; Bower-Templeman 29, and Carlyle, 24.

The Illinois Veterans' Commission is endeavoring to complete a new Roll of Honor of all veterans in the State of Illinois and the cemetery in which they are buried. Any persons who may have knowledge where a correction or the addition of a name to be added to the following lists, they are ask to contact A. J. Berryhill at the Logan County Court House, Lincoln, Illinois.

The list as shown below is a record as now compiled by the Commission with the aid of the veteran's organizations.

A SYMBOL OF LOVE TO ENDURE FOREVER

THE GRAVES OF THE EARLY PIONEERS in this area were marked with simple slabs of stone as a token of lasting love and esteem by those who survived them.

Today, at Manley Monuments you will find monuments and markers that are much more artistic and enduring than those the pioneers could have dreamed of 125 years ago.
